Family to pay ₹10L for Amritpal's custody parole

Yudhvir Rana | TNN

Amritsar: Jailed Khadoor Sahib MP Amritpal Singh's family will have to deposit around Rs 10 lakh to meet the expenses of his custody parole to attend his grandmother's cremation at his native village, Jallupur Khera.

Amritpal's lawyer, Harjot Singh Mann, on Thursday said that in compliance with the Nov 17 court order, the family will be depositing the estimated expenses involved in arranging his custody parole.

According to the cost estimate provided by the office of Amritsar SSP-rural, the major expense is air travel for Amritpal and his police escort on the Amritsar-Delhi-Dibrugarh route and back, estimated at Rs 7,84,896. Other expenses include Rs 25,000 for the stay of five police personnel in Dibrugarh from Nov 19 to 20, Rs 40,000 per day for accommodation in Delhi for Amritpal and five police personnel on Nov 20 and 21, Rs 15,000 for private vehicles in Dibrugarh and Delhi, and Rs 1 lakh for the deployment of 20 police personnel and a gazetted officer for security and liaison arrangements in Delhi from Nov 21 to 22.

The total estimated expenditure works out to Rs 10,04,896, said Mann.

Waris Punjab De chief spokesperson Shamsher Singh Padhri said the family was arranging the money through relatives and acquaintances and would deposit the amount by Thursday evening.

Padhri said extensive arrangements were being made at Jallupur Khera for the cremation of Amritpal's grandmother, Charan Kaur, who died on Nov 8.

The party expects a gathering of 1 lakh. It has earmarked around 6 acres of land in the village for the cremation and related arrangements and plans to deploy nearly 300 sewadars to manage the gathering and facilitate visitors.

Farm fires: CAQM notice to DCs, SSPs of 6 more dists

Neel Kamal | TNN

Bathinda: A spurt in farm fires has brought more senior district administrative and police officials in Punjab under the scanner of the Commission for Air Quality Management (CAQM). With the state recording a 31% increase in farm fires till Nov 18, the commission on Wednesday issued notices to deputy commissioners and senior superintendents of police of six districts, seeking an explanation for alleged non-compliance with its directions to prevent and control stubble burning.

The DCs and SSPs of Sangrur, Patiala, Muktsar, Moga, Mansa and Ludhiana have been asked to explain why action should not be initiated against them under Section 14 of the CAQM Act for non-compliance with or contravention of the commission's orders and directions. They have been directed to submit their explanations by the evening of Nov 23, failing which, the notices state, it will be presumed that they have nothing to submit and action will be initiated under the provisions of the Act.

Similar notices had earlier been issued to DCs and SSPs of nine districts. Officials in Jalandhar, Faridkot, Bathinda, Barnala and Fazilka were issued notices on Nov 4, those in Gurdaspur and Kapurthala on Nov 3, and those in Amritsar and Tarn Taran on Nov 1.

These districts had emerged as stubble-burning hotspots, with some figuring among the 10 worst-affected districts across the seven states where crop-residue burning is monitored.

The notices state that according to action-taken reports submitted by the Punjab govt, no action has reportedly been initiated against officials concerned under the CAQM Act, 2021, despite the continued farm fires.
