Sabarimala clean-up drive gathers pace ahead of pilgrimage season

27 tonnes of waste to be lifted from Pampa and adjoining areas | TDB sets Nov 10 deadline

SHAINU MOHAN @T'Puram

AMID longstanding concerns over unscientific waste disposal, indiscriminate burning of plastic and environmental pollution in the ecologically sensitive Periyar Tiger Reserve, Clean Kerala Company Ltd (CKCL) has launched a major waste clearance operation at Sabarimala, to remove around 27 tonnes of accumulated waste from Pampa and adjoining areas ahead of the Mandala-Makaravilakku pilgrimage season.

The Travancore Devaswom Board (TDB) has set November 10 as the deadline to clear all accumulated waste from Pampa and Sannidhanam ahead of the pilgrimage season.

As part of pre-season clean-up at Sabarimala, the CKCL has removed around 17.68 tonnes of waste from Pampa pilgrim areas. CKCL managing director G K Suresh Kumar told TNIE that around 10 tonnes of recyclable material will be lifted from Pampa on Tuesday.

Clean-up drive by Clean Kerala Company Ltd under way at Pampa | EXPRESS

Of the 17,680kg collected from Pampa, 11,255kg was recyclable metal waste, 3,605kg recyclable plastic waste and 2,820kg rejected waste. The CKCL estimates that the total quantity lifted from the area will reach approximately 27 tonnes.

Around 100 workers have been deployed for the cleaning operation. The CKCL is planning to begin clearing work at Sannidhanam from Wednesday. Suresh said the absence of a systematic mechanism for segregating and removing recyclable waste had been a major concern at Sabarimala.

"Earlier, recyclable materials were also being put into the incinerators and burned along with other waste. There was no proper system to account for the quantity of plastic and other materials removed for recycling. Now, we are introducing a system where the waste collected and transported is properly accounted for," he said.

An official with the TDB said that the plan is to ensure complete sanitation across Pampa and Sannidhanam and ensure the removal of waste by November 10.

"On the waste management front, our existing infrastructure — including the 5 MLD sewage treatment plant at Sannidhanam, the 3.5 MLD plant at Pampa, and incinerators with capacities of 700kg per hour at Sannidhanam and 400 kg per hour at Pampa — remains fully operational. To improve segregation, we are scaling up the three-bin system," said the official.

The official added that it will be impossible to deploy tractors for waste movement from Sannidanam once the season kicks off.

13 of 17 prisoners who escaped from Theni sub-jail recaptured

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Theni

POLICE on Tuesday arrested 13 of 17 prisoners who escaped from the Theni district jail at Thekkampatti after allegedly assaulting prison staff and fleeing with a gold chain on Monday. DGP (Prisons) Sandeep Rai Rathore, who inspected the sub-jail on Tuesday, questioned officials for over five hours. He told reporters the remaining prisoners would be arrested soon. He also said nine prison personnel had been placed under suspension.

The jailbreak occurred around 10pm when inmates raised an alarm that M Muthu Ilangovan was suffering an epileptic seizure. He had a history of seizures and had earlier been taken to the Theni Medical College for treatment. Other inmates had witnessed these episodes and planned the escape accordingly.

On Monday night, Ilangovan pretended to suffer a seizure. When para guard Stalin Prabhu entered the cell to check on him, the inmates attacked him with a knife, spoons and plates before tying him up with bedsheets. They then attacked three guards, seized the keys and fled.

Stalin suffered injuries and was admitted to the Government Hospital in Theni.

The district jail, designed to accommodate 200 inmates, housed 334 prisoners as of Monday, raising questions on overcrowding and security. Eight prison personnel are supposed to be deployed during night shifts. However, only four were on duty on Monday night, sources said.

Initially, police arrested four escapees — T Praveenkumar of Burma Colony in Perungudi, K Rajkumar of Sundararajapuram in Madurai, A Raja Sinkanthar of Melamadai in Madurai and S Silambarasan of Theni district. The fifth prisoner, J Prasanth, a disabled person from Melamadai in Madurai, was caught on Tuesday while trying to travel to Madurai in a shared autorickshaw. The remaining eight prisoners were traced with the help of drones.
